As "HyperMotion Technology" is now fully integrated into a revolutionary brand new, in-game engine, EA has shifted the development of the FIFA video game franchise to a totally new and dynamic studio model. The new model brings together all EA Sports FIFA game teams to improve the overall quality of the FIFA games. The new studio model takes advantage of FIFA 22's game-changing technology and the combination of new and improved artificial intelligence and physics modelling in the new engine, to create a more realistic and challenging game overall. From this new studio structure, EA will invest even more into creating the most realistic, authentic and competitive football experience. FIFA 22 will feature new football fans and more dedicated players. The game will cater to players who want to play and compete like the real pros. In addition to the enhanced gameplay, the game will also bring the most immersive presentation to the competitive gaming sector. The new EA Football (EAFF) Studios, which will be located in London, Cologne, Los Angeles and Hong Kong, will be led by Associate Product Director for FIFA, Anthony Francis, and assisted by FIFA game producers, Patrick Mulligan and Rafael Chacón. The FIFA Interactive World Cup (FIVC) is the biggest esports competition in the world, and FIFA is one of the most popular esport games. Together, FIFA and FIVC annually raise millions of dollars for worthy causes. FIFA 22 will be available Spring 2018 on Xbox One, PS4 and PC. EA SPORTS PROVIDES A MORE REALISTIC AND COMBATIVE FOOTBALL EXPERIENCE FOR THE DIGITAL AGE The new FIFA game engine technology is more than a mere upgrade: it's not only a technical revolution, it's also a revolution in the way EA Sports manages the FIFA franchise. Take control of your very own custom team from over 500 players from around the globe with the brand new FIFA Ultimate Team. The game will also feature a new card collection mode called CARDS Unlocked, which allows you to search for, unlock and customize the most powerful cards in FIFA Ultimate Team. FIFA Ultimate Team is packed with dynamic Ultimate Team Seasons which give you the opportunity to unlock players with your Season progress. FIFA 22 also includes a new Tagging feature. Players can now write notes of encouragement to your team-mates and training staff, share their analysis with your virtual teammates, or even leave you a simple thumbs up when they are happy with your performance, all with the touch of a button. My Team – An exclusive new dynamic game mode in FIFA 22, will allow you to choose the players and take charge of your favourite team in the most immersive and dynamic football experience ever created. CITY 2K:

ENTERTAINMENT Enter the world of sports in a massively multiplayer online sports entertainment franchise where you can take control of your own team of athletes, coaches, and commentators. Featuring over 1,000 unique players, your city will have a football stadium filled with the best players in the world including Ronaldo, Zidane, Drogba, and Messi. THE FUTURE OF FUTURE PITCH™ FUTURE PITCH™ for FIFA is a revolutionary ball-based technology which delivers ultra realistic ball physics and impact feedback to the game. This will transform the whole game experience from the core, bringing a new level of authenticity to the complete soccer experience and providing a truly immersive experience for players that have never experienced anything like it before. FIFA 2K18 is certainly a strong contender for the new year in gaming. The question is, will it topple the other heavy hitters in the sports genre and bring more players to FIFA like they have done in the past?
